VOL. IV. NO. 139. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, JUNE 12-13, 1898. PRICE, 5 CENTS

RICHARD J's GOOD RACE.

Harlem was deluged in rain Saturday. The storm ceased and the air was warm and clear before the third race. But an early streaky track had been converted into one of deep slop by the deluge. A good crowd was out and the racing was good looking.

Six favorites and one second choice won. The losing favorite, Banquo II., was an 11 to 20 chance.

The first race was won by a good looking 3-year-old colt that may be of Derby class. Patroon had bad heels early in the season, and it was not a certainty that he was quite ready. But the horsemen all agreed he ought to win on class; that he was either a 100 to 1 or a 1 to 10 shot. While the horsemen played him to win feed bills, the public followed suit. The race demonstrated that he should properly have been "out" in the betting. When Clawson gave him his head he ran around his field.

Onomastus is a brother of Irish Lady. He made his debut in the second race. In the opening betting he was 2 to 1. Under steady play his price fell to 4 to 5. His owner, W. H. Laudeman, backed him less than heavily. Someone else had a line and did the heavy betting. Onomastus and The Dragoon raced away from the others after the first furlong. It looked as if The Dragoon had a chance until they were in front of the stand. Then Willie Martin showed he had something up his sleeve, for he let out a wrap and Onomastus easily forged ahead. While he was finishing leisurely on the outside, Pirate Judge, on the inside, dashed up, got the place, and was beaten less than a length.

The third race was the one that upset the wise people, who believed Banquo II. could not lose. Nathanson strung out the field. Pitfall, from a bad start, ran a good race and finished second. Coming into the stretch he looked dangerous, but Nathanson got away from him in the finish. Banquo lost ground at the start, recovered several lengths on the back stretch and third quarter and went to floundering submission at the end.

Richard J. seems to be a great son of a great racehorse. He has size, substance and speed, and is at home in any kind of footing. Whether he can go a route and carry weight is yet to be determined. He looks and runs as if able to do anything any other thoroughbred can do. In yesterday's mud he won the fourth race with surprising ease. So fast a sprinter as May W. did not keep pace with him. The Manxman went away flying. The big son of Morello colared him after a quarter had been run. They ran head and head around the turn, losing May W. In the stretch The Manxman could not stand the pressure, and at the furlong he fell back beaten. Richard J. finished full of strength.

Tom Collins landed the stake event in hollow style. He opened favorite at short odds and was backed to odds on. Bonito's chances were next in estimation but in the betting she ranked about equal with Good Friend. The latter and Collins ran paired along the back stretch and nearly around the turn. Rounding for home Good Friend made a move to take the track and momentarily showed slightly in front. Collins responded by assuming a clear lead. That ended the race.

The mile and a half race was little of a contest. Mr. Easton cut out the work for nearly a mile. Then Forte assumed command and held it to the end. Morte Fouse lay far back the first three-quarters, and closed from there on, but could never get up.

The closing favorite was Lord Fairfax. Off poorly he won in a drive, but could have won easily. Alabaster and Inconstancy appeared to have the race to themselves until the favorite drew up at the sixteenth mark. Lord Fairfax either tired or Bloss began loafing after having secured the lead, with the result that Bloss had to whip him out.

Pat Dunne received yesterday from Woodford Bros., of Paris, Ky., a letter which said Leonatus died of colic at their farm last Thursday morning. As a 3-year-old, when the property of Chinn & Morgan, Leonatus won ten straight races and then broke down. These were the Blue Ribbon, at Lexington; Kentucky Derby, Tobacco Stakes and Woodburn Stakes, at Louisville; Hindoo Stakes, Ripple Stakes and Himyar Stakes, at Latonia; Dearborn Stakes, Green Stakes and Illinois Derby, at Chicago. He was taken from Chicago to Long Branch to fill engagements and was training there when one of his tendons gave way. An offer of $40,000 for him was refused a few days previous to the mishap. He was not a success in the stud, but sired Leonawell, Libertine, Tillo and a few other good performers.

O. G. Parke will ship his good filly Elsie Barnes from St. Louis, to run in the Proviso Stakes next Wednesday.

Bob Holloway arrived from Lexington yesterday. He said: "I have not an interest in a hair on any horse, excepting Teuton."

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

JEAN BERAUD IS MR. WHITNEY'S.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Jean Beraud was sold to-day to William C. Whitney for a big price—reported as $40,000—Mr. Whitney to get the Great American Stakes prize which the colt won to-day, valued at $10,000.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Imp arrived at Sheepshead Bay in good condition and is the object of much inspection and comment. Here is what "Kelston" of Morning Telegraph says about her:

"The western filly Imp, in charge of her owner and trainer, Mr. Charles Brossman, was out on the track at Sheepshead yesterday morning, and trotted and cantered. I had a look at her in her stall. She looks very well for a filly that has been racing all season, and just made a long railroad trip. She is on lengthy, rakish lines, with a very speedy look to her. As a 2-year-old, I am told by horsemen who saw her race, she was about the same class as Cleophus, and as those identified with the filly have no doubt of her staying abilities, she must be reckoned as dangerous in the Suburban, with 102 pounds to carry."

Another paragraph about her in the same paper says: "Imp, the newly-arrived Suburban candidate, is already in trouble. Her name has never been recorded according to the requirements of the Jockey Club, but the proper course is being pursued to make that all right on the payment of a $50 fine."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Few people are aware that Lou Bramble was officially registered with the Jockey Club as Buella. Under the rules of racing she will be compelled to run under her registered name.

Secretary Ed Hopper yesterday inaugurated an innovation at Latonia which is well worthy of imitation all over the country. In the future all exercise boys working up horses before races must wear a uniform which the jockey club provides. It consists of a white duck jacket and red and white cap. On the back of each jacket is the number of the horse being warmed up, to correspond with that on the program. The innovation is an excellent one and originated in the fertile brain of Secretary Hopper.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Topgallant—Dolly Varden. Start good. Won handsily. Typhoon was very lucky throughout, had clear sailing and finished strong. He was undoubtedly the best. Lambert took the long route, finished strong and is very good. Mitchell showed fine speed. She was short, and quit right at the end. Watch her. She is a good miler. Tabouret was handled weakly the last quarter. Watch her. Ran well. Manassas closed ground throughout. He favors a route and ran a good race. Is uncertain but in good form. Nana H. showed a fine burst of speed and was eased up the last furlong. Sensational has stalled. Gotham was short and eased up. Isidor belongs elsewhere and will do best at a longer route. Watch him always. Double Quick had no chance at the start.

Scratched—Buella, 128; Nosey, 116; Slasher, 102; Hanlon, 102; Arbuckle, 101; Bastion, 99; Jeffers, n, 95; Debride, 93.

Winner—B. g, 5, by Powhattan—Barbiche. Start bad. Won driving. Dolando was perfectly handled. His win was lucky. He is good however. Bannock was weakly handled at the end and took the long route. Is a slow beginner. He finished strong and was the best. Marsian ran an honest race. Refugee favors mud and got an atrocious ride. He was laid out of race too long. Howard S does his best on a hard track. He had no chance with today's jockey. He favors a route and needs strong handling. Burlesque was short and looked high. He was eased in the stretch. Watch him. Maceo was run off his feet early. He had a lot of speed and got a bad ride. He leans toward mud.

Scratched—Rotterdam, 108; King T, 106; Black Dude, 86.

Overweights—Bannock, 1 pound; Howard S, 1; Burlesque II, 1.

Winner—B. c, by His Highness—Carrie W. Start bad. Won easily. Beraud was well and luckily handled. His company wasn't much. He appeared to be sore going to the post. Miller was waited with and came with a rush at end. Is only a sprinter, however, and got good handling; was lucky too. Autumn ran a good race. It was above the recent mark. He came again after appearing to be beaten and finished strong and game. Watch him. He will improve. Favor him at a route. Kingdon, off badly, was killed off in the first quarter and stopped in stretch. Is sour and stale, yet can do better. Huitzilopochtli pulled up lame. Ilithyia ran a bad race. He doesn't appear to be of any account.

Scratched—Glenheim, 122.

6362 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. 3-year-olds. Allowances. Preakness Stakes. $2,000 Guaranteed.

Winner—Ch. c, by Silver Fox—Asteria. Start good. Won easily. Sly Fox was best and outclassed his field. He is good and a glutton for racing. Huguenot appeared to be galloping the first part. He raced only a little while when called on. Then he acted like a coward. He probably is none too game and is overrated. Nuto ran a good, honest race. He was unlucky, requires sharp pacemaking and belongs among cheaper horses. Lydian stopped after half a mile. He is best in mud and was probably short.

Scratched—Sanders, 120; Mont d'Or, 120; Whistling Con, 108; Merlin, 103.

CHICAGO, ILL., JUNE 12-13, 1898.

Chicago's commanding central position and easy accessibility must eventually be the means of causing this city to wrest from New York the distinction of being the principal sales mart for thoroughbred yearlings. The Woodard & Shanklin and the Easton sales this year will be the send-off. The Woodard & Shanklin sale will take place at the Union Stock Yards on the evenings of June 27 and 28, when, besides a great list of high-bred yearlings, the developed race-horses of the Baker & Gentry stable, including such cracks as Simon W, Abe Furst, Uarda, Hardy Pardee, Don Quixote and Rosinante, will pass under the hammer.

The yearling sales to be conducted by the Easton Company cover an extensive list of consignments embracing sales in both New York and Chicago in the course of which auctioneer Wm. Easton will sell the produce of the Rancho del Paso, Dixiana, Nursery Stud, Belle Meade, Brookdale, Beaumont, Wenonah, Adelbert, Silver Brook, Fairview, Avondale, Old Fort, Hurricane and Willamette breeding establishments and quite necessarily a host of the future bright stars of the track.

The American Horse Exchange sales of yearlings begin at the sales ring, Broadway and 50th street New York, June 13, when the Ellerslie yearlings will be disposed of. June 20 the McGrathiana and Runnymede yearlings will be sold and the Neponset yearlings will be offered to the highest bidders June 27.

Winner—B. c. by Tremont—Armiel.
Start good. Won in a hard drive. The race was run in a slap dash way. Armament was best and lucky to have clear sailing. He got no assistance from his jockey. Rusher appeared to be winning. His jockey, going to whip, beat him at the finish. Meddlesome is best in mud and requires strong handling. Extreme had no chance with his ride. Amorita closed a big gap. Tenderesse was not well ridden. Loiter went to pieces after a fast three furlongs. Scratched—Chopin, 108; Avoca, 99.
Overweights—Extreme, 1 pound; Stamina, 1.

Winner—Ch. c. by Meddler—Frolic Grace.
Start fair. Won driving. Intrusive had a clear course. He was perfectly handled, too, and finished game and strong after making the running under high weight. He will improve. Whistling Con was almost left. He should have won. He closed a big gap. Laudman ran a good race, but was stopping at the end. Is not of much account. Chalmers got bad handling and closed strong. He favors a route. Watch him. Decanter was overweighted. Murillo is a sprinter and leans toward mud. Gomez stopped. He can do better.
Scratched—Boy Orator, 109; Lydian, 106.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Patron—Madie.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second in a hard drive; third and fourth doing their best. Patron was far the best. He is a good colt and in good condition. Tab him to beat better ones. Hosi, under a good ride, ran a greatly improved race. Burns hustled him from the start. Jersey Lad made up some ground at the end. Gnome won't do at all. She had her usual flight of speed, but stopped to nothing after going about five furlongs. The same comment applies to Panout. Red Gidd were one bar plate.

Winner—Ch. c. 3, by Onondaga—Patty of Cork.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won with something left after an early drive. The next three were under full sail. Onomastus was played for a good thing and proved one. He was in trouble at the head of the stretch, but under Martin's powerful riding responded nicely. He is a good looker and seems to have a liking for the mud. Pirate Judge, slow to get going, finished strong. Onomastus and The Dragon bumped one another about the eighth pole. It was not enough to cause damage, though, and no notice was taken of it. Mulvihill went to pieces when the pinch came. So did The Dragon. The race was run in a driving rain storm.
Overweights—Orchard, 3 pounds.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third driving to the limit. At the weight and in the going Nathanson was the best. Rose took no chances with him and made every post a winning one. This fellow is a most consistent one. He is a fair selling plater under light weight. Banquo II ran a bad race. He seems to be an in and out. He can and will do a lot better. There was little or no action behind the third horse. In fact, the last four horses were pulled up at the finish.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Morello—Bonnie Leaf.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly. Richard J ran another one of his good races. He was under a stout pull all the way, and could have gone to the front at any stage. This fellow is certainly a high class colt. The Manxman ran a good race. May W's race was out of line. She had little or no speed. Throw the race out. Daisy F labored in the going, but was catching May W fast at the finish. She is a good, honest filly.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Newcourt—Malada.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop; the next three were under keen pressure. Tom Collins revealed in the going and simply played with his field. He is good now and hard to beat on a heavy track. Inuendo finished with a rush. Mud is his forte and he seems to be improving. Good Friend was raced into the ground trying to stay with Tom Collins. When the pinch came Bonito stood a drive the entire length of the stretch. Goodrich seems to be a counterfeit.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand; second and third driving and out to the limit. Forte had little or nothing to beat. He was by far the best in the race and simply played with his field. He is a good handy selling plater over a distance of ground. Mr. Easton ran his race. Rose was hardly strong enough to do him justice. Over a route the horse is heavy headed. Morte Fonce would not try the first mile. Rutter rode him hard all the way. When he did take a notion to run he closed a big gap.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Luke Blackburn—Miss Fairfax.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. It was a driving finish. Lord Fairfax is especially good in sticky going and ran a clever race. He is a horse with some class, but has bad legs and can only be raced when the track is soft. Alabaster showed a sharp turn of speed. Albert S was coming fast at the finish. He slipped a good deal the first part of the race and did not get to real racing until straightened away for home. J H C was under a drive the last quarter. Inconstancy ran better than the figures show and can be tabbed. Marcato had no speed and can do better.
Overweights—Alabaster, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. g. 3, by Saracen—Alala H.
Post 11 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving. Guide Rock was the best. He went to the front when ready and won as he pleased. Inspirer is improving. He closed strong. So did George T. Todd. Lady Hamilton seems to be of no account. She stopped to nothing at the end.

Scratched—Alva, 109; Black Jack, 105; Aunt Mary, 96.

Winner—B. c. by Free Knight—Maggie Merrill.
Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won in a gallop; second ridden out. Ben Bramble is not a good mud horse. He likes a smooth, fast track. Lee Bruno revealed in the going. Fausturo raced well until the pace and weight told on him. He runs best on a fast track. The others were badly outclassed.

Scratched—Palarm, 101; The Sheriff, 98; Good Hope, 98.

Winner—Ch. c. 3, by Topgallant—Valkyrie.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop; second easily. Valid was the best. He had plenty of speed all the way and drew off when the final test came. Leaseaman might have done better with more pace to the race. Tom Kingsley, played for a good thing, ran disappointingly. Charley Reiff sulked. Weenatchie was favored by the going and ran an improved race.

Scratched—Jack Bradley, 108; Tony Honing, 107; Confession, 102.

Overweights—Weenatchie, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. m. 8, by Linden—Adele.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second driving also. Linda had the advantage of being her own pacemaker. She favors racing in front and weight off. With a strong pace Madline could have easily beaten her. The latter did not seem to like the stiff going any too well. Oninoor closed strong. Tutuilla was big and high, but had some speed.

Scratched—Basquil, 104.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Linden—Crocket.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second driving. Crocket was the best. She had to run around Fervor and Forbush, and went to the front when ready. Gilmore, in trying to save ground, went into the heavy going. Forbush is not partial to mud. Garland Barr and Nick Carter were never keen contenders.

Scratched—Algol, 117.

Winner—B. f. by Luke Blackburn—Maud Ward.
Post 9 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second easily. It was strictly a two horse race. Belle Ward was hard driven to get to Our Chance. Then she beat him easily. Miss Dewey had some speed.

Scratched—Ed Farrell, 115; Denial, 102; Sorrow, 100.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Favor—Bitter Sweet.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving. Mitchell was a wild horse in the going. Sweet William was bothered at the first turn. He likes to get off and run in front. Prince of India favors a hard track. Zarina ran a game race, and pulled up lame. Montedonico closed strong.
